Green Zebra Adventures Arrives in Snowshoe, West Virginia

International adventure tourism company partners with Intrawest Resorts to open 2nd US location

(SNOWSHOE, W. Va.) – Green Zebra Adventures, a state-of-the-art adventure tourism company currently offering guided, off-road tours in Aruba, Los Cabos, Puerto Vallarta, Puerto Rico and Scottsdale, Arizona has recently partnered with Intrawest resorts to bring their rock-solid Tomcar tours to Snowshoe Mountain, West Virginia.

“Partnering with an industry leader like Intrawest brings so much value not only to our service and standards but the overall experience for our guests” says Founder Andy Meltz. “With the addition of Snowshoe Mountain, we can safely say we now offer something for everyone; be it prime oceanfront locations, the Sonoran Desert and now the mountainous terrain of West Virginia. Green Zebra Adventures truly is a company for all seasons.”

The diversity of market locations under the Green Zebra name, their unique brand of tours which allow guests to drive themselves through rainforests, mountains and desert terrain along with a 98% customer satisfaction rating is what continues to drive this off-road company to such distinctive locales around the world.

Green Zebra Adventures recently began operations on Snowshoe Mountain in May and will be running through October 2010. The zebra themed off-road vehicles, ranked among the safest in their class, combined with the company’s commitment to providing the best customer experience have allowed Green Zebra Adventures to continue expansion throughout the U.S., with more locations on the horizon.

Green Zebra Tomcar tours can be booked through the Green Zebra website or by calling 866.703.2622. While prices vary per market, the Snowshoe location offers a variety of options, ranging from $59 for the backseat of a four-passenger vehicle to $169 for a single driver, solo ride.
